Disclosures

BOKF, N.A. Collective Investment Funds (“BOK Financial Funds”) are bank collective investment funds; they are not mutual funds. BOKF, N.A. serves as the Trustee of the BOKF Collective Investment Trust and maintains ultimate fiduciary authority over the management of, and investments made in, the BOKF Funds. The BOKF Funds and units therein are exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. Investments in the BOKF Funds are not deposits or obligations of or guaranteed by BOK Financial, and are not insured by the FDIC, the Federal Reserve, or any other governmental agency. The BOKF Funds are commingled investment vehicles, and as such, the values of the underlying investments will rise and fall according to market activity; it is possible to lose money by investing in the BOKF Funds.

Participation in Collective Investment Trust Funds is limited primarily to qualified defined contribution plans and certain state or local government plans and is not available to IRAs, health and welfare plans and, in certain cases, Keogh (H.R. 10) plans. Collective Investment Trust Funds may be suitable investments for participants seeking to construct a well-diversified retirement savings program. Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of any pooled investment company carefully before investing.
